UNDABLE IN FOUR PER CENT. BONDS.

BONDS, Aug. 2.—The Memphis Evening Times, of the 29th, says the steamer Charlottesville was sunk at Carolina Landing on the 24th. She was a total loss. A judgment sent to her bell was driven back.

The rebels are moving up towards Columbia. Their force is constituted of one hundred cavalry and four pieces of artillery. The river is said to be effectually blockaded. The Palmetto and Carol have also been disabled and towed off. Eight transports are at the mouth of White river and cannot go up. The rebels, 1,500 strong, under Gen. Dodge, changed Col. Brook's command of 300, 10 miles from Beaufort, driving us back, and following ten miles. Col. Brooks, a very other prominent officer, and 37 privates were killed. Col. Brook's remains are to be buried at Beaufort.

We expect, therefore, soon to hear that this man Johnson has been appointed to an important command in Virginia, and he will probably be placed as advancing upon the Maryland side of the Potomac, but was a reconnaissance to ascertain the strength and position of the Northern defences of Washington, and that having accomplished this object to their satisfaction, a more formidable movement in the same direction may be anticipated, and that the administration ought at once to prepare for it.

MASON had an unofficial interview with Palmerston.

New York, July 27.—Washington special mention the defeat of Averill, Crook and Hunter by Early, who immediately advanced on Harper's Ferry. It is believed Early will not cross into Maryland, but will attempt a raid into Pennsylvania.

Senator Mallory, of Kentucky, was killed by soldiers on the 27th of July.

Ed. Paskell, editor of the Nashville Press was arrested on the 15th ult., and gave bond in the sum of $500.00.
